

Hannah Lynn Cohen, Violin

413-441-6327 | hannahcohen97@gmail.com
817 West End Avenue New York, NY 10025

Hannah Lynn Cohen has been collaborating with and studying under master teachers on a national and global scale for over fifteen years. Ms. Cohen recently graduated with a Bachelor of Music in Violin Performance from the Boston University School of Music. There, Ms. Cohen was a student of Peter Zazofsky. Ms. Cohen began her violin studies at the age of four and her previous teachers include Jan Repko, Wendy Sharp, and Betty Jean Hagen. She made her orchestral debut with the Holyoke Civic Symphony Orchestra playing Lalo Symphonie Espagnole as the winner of their concerto competition in May, 2015. Ms. Cohen has attended numerous festivals including National Music Festival, Green Mountain Chamber Music Festival, and MusicAlp International Academy of Music. Additionally, she has performed in masterclasses led by Daniel Philips, Irina Muresanu, Robin Sharp, Klaudia Szlachta and Bayla Keyes. Ms. Cohen currently resides in New York City where she is pursuing a Master of Music in Violin Performance at New York University Steinhardt School with Kurt Nikkanen, while simultaneously holding the position of Adjunct Teacher of Violin Studies for non music majors at NYU.